Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Manuscripts acquired by gift or purchase from various sources. For further information, consult the curator.

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

Restricted Fragile Papers may only be consulted with permission of the appropriate curator. Preservation photocopies for reference use have been substituted in the main files.

Conditions Governing Use

The Osborn Manuscript Files are the physical property of the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University. Literary rights, including copyright, belong to the authors or their legal heirs and assigns. For further information, consult the curator.

Preferred Citation

[Author], [Title]. James Marshall and Marie-Louise Osborn Collection, Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University.

Processing Information

Bibliographic descriptions for OSB MSS FILE # 1-16601 were converted into online lists from previously existing card sets in the Manuscript Catalog. All pertinent bibliographic information on the cards has been retained. OSB MSS FILE # 16601 and higher were cataloged directly into online lists, arranged in order as cataloged. Cataloging of new accessions is ongoing, and these lists are updated accordingly. The date of the most recent update to the list is noted on the title page.

Scope and Contents

The Osborn Manuscript Files contain single, unbound manuscripts and small groups of manuscripts acquired for the Osborn Collection which the Library has chosen to describe in finding-aid style lists rather than as discrete entries in Yale University Library's on-line public access catalog (ORBIS). The materials in the Osborn Manuscript Files include literary and historical manuscripts, individual and small groups of letters, and single documents, as well as some "Unprocessed" material such as engraved portraits and bibliographic information.

Materials described in the Osborn Manuscript Files lists are grouped as follows:

OSB MSS FILE # 1 - 16660 are arranged alphabetically under headings for author or other closely related personal or corporate name. Items of unidentified authorship are listed by title or topic.

OSB MSS FILE # 16601 and higher are listed in the order cataloged.

Catalog records for other materials in the Osborn Collection, including archival collections and manuscripts in bound format, can be found in ORBIS.

To request materials from the Osborn Manuscript Files, please cite them as follows: OSB MSS FILE #, e.g., OSB MSS FILE 4532.

FISHER, JOHN, 1569-1641

file 5237 [Account of the religious conferences between Francis White and John Fisher]: contemporary manuscript [ca. 1622-24] 66p.

31 cm.
Contents: 1) A coppye of that shortt
wrytten paper wch was the occasion of the conferrence between D. White ande me; 2) A relation of what passed in the first conferrence betwixt D. Whyte and me; 3) A relation of the second conferrence...; and 4) A brief relation of what passed in a third pryvat conferrence betwixt a Bishopp [Laud]
and me...
These conferences took place in 1622,
at the desire of King James I, before the Countess of Buckingham, who was leaning to catholicism. Fisher defended the catholic aid against Francis White, afterwards Bishop of Ely. The King attended the conferences, the third and last of which was held on 24 May 1622, when Laud replaced White.
Fisher's account of the Conferences was circulated widely in manuscript (see volume II of Laud's Works, Oxford, 1849).

file 6815	3 ALS and 3 LS to Sir George Colebrooke Cossinburza (1), and Fort William 50 p. 22 x 18 cm. Hastings writes Colebrooke, the Chairman of the East India Company, a detailed account of his actions as Governor of Bengal. He speaks especially of Bengal's financial problems and of his attempts to solve them, partially through reforms in customs and administration. He also discusses external affairs and personal conflicts.	1772 Sep 7, 1773 Oct 12 file 6816	ALS to Sir George Colebrooke, Daylesford House 4 p. 23 x 18 cm. Hastings defends himself against charges in a recent letter from Colebrooke, whom he had thought a friend. He especially maintains that he had looked after the interests of Colebrooke's son Edward as best he could, considering how the Court of Directors, of which Colebrooke was for a time Chairman, had obstructed him while governor.

file 6827	LS (retained copy) to [Lord North], Fort William [Calcutta] 11 p. 24 x 19 cm. On the seizure of control at Madras by Lord Pigot and his subsequent overthrow from power. Hastings indicates that the Council in Bengal acted "instantly and unanimously...to acknowledge the authority of the new Government..." and at the same time explains the absence of any action taken by him personally. Hastings views the problems in Madras as fundamental to the governance of India and perhaps sympathizes with Pigot. Makes several detailed suggestions for changing the power structure. Within two weeks, however, Col Monson died, restoring Hastings's dominance in Bengal.	1776 Sep 15 file 10793 3 ALS and fragment to John Wilson Croker. Arlington Street. 1854 Mar 32 p. 18 x 11 cm.

Newdegate opposes the Reform Bill, since it would "give the Whig and Radical Party an undue proportion of the seats created...," would lower the franchise and would deny seats to men of intelligence who scorn politics. He decries the contentment of the Conservatives, and the lack of an active "defence of our institutions." He describes the political situation, and Russell's motives. He worries over the encroachments of Jews and Catholics.

PRINGLE, WILLIAM HENRY, C.1772-1840

file 12278 ALS to Major [Aylmer?] Haly, Stratford Place. 1821 Mar 3 4 p.
22 x 18 cm.
Pringle would like to visit Haly's chateau in France. He describes England as growing more quiet as people forget the Queen, and manufacturers find employ. Attended by the best doctors, his daughter is cured of an inflammation
by bleeding. He relates court gossip and regrets the death of the Princess Elizabeth, since the world would prefer a sovereign
from the Duke of Clarence's family over the Duke of Kent's.

file 15678 Instructions given to Mr. Anthony Mildmay sent unto Duke Casimir the xjth of July 1578, [Antwerp]. 1578 Jul 11

4 p.
31 x 21 cm.
Signed by Walsingham and Lord Cobham. Walsingham and Cobham were in Antwerp on a special mission when they sent Mildmay, Walsingham's nephew, with these instructions to acquaint Duke John Casimir "sith the cause of our owne Cominge hither". The principal cause was the unwelcome news that the Estates had invited the Duke of Alencon and Anjou to come to their aid against Spain. This document embodies a detailed summary, drawn up for Casimir, of the whole course of the negotiations, both in France and in the Low Countries.

DERING, CHARLES, 1657-1719

file 19236 ALS to Sir Richard Southwell 1685 Jun 14

Letter from Dering to his uncle describing a duel he fought with Captain Henry Goring over a visit paid by Dering to the actress Mrs. Barry (Elizabeth Barry, ca. 1658-1713). The duel took place on June 10, 1685, backstage after a play (probably the Dorset Garden Theatre) and resulted in the death of Goring from "a cut throat." Dering also discusses the Coroner's inquest in progress and Sir Henry Goring's comment that he had "too great reason to believe that his son was very much in drink" at the time.
With: "The severall Informations and Depositions taken before the Coroners Inquest the 11th and 18 of June 1685." Manuscript, also in Dering's hand, of testimony given by several witnesses to the duel, including Mrs. Barry herself and the actors James Wiltshire and William Mountfort.
