Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing, indicated by brackets.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Anselm Hollo (1934-2013)

Anselm Hollo was a Finnish poet and translator who published over 40 works of poetry. His awards and recognition included a fellowship from the National Endowment of the Arts, grants from the Fund for Poetry, Finland's Distinguished Foreign Translator's Award, and the Gertrude Stein Award in Innovative American Poetry. Hollo taught creative writing and poetry at institutions including The State University of New York College at Buffalo, the University of Colorado at Boulder, and the Naropa Institute in Boulder, Colorado.

Born in Helsinki, Finland on April 12, 1934, Hollo moved to the United Kingdom in the 1960s. There, he worked at the Finnish section of the BBC World Service, where he gained recognition as a poet and translator. In 1967 he moved to Boulder, Colorado and married visual artist Jane Dalrymple-Hollo. Hollo translated poetry and essays from Finnish, German, Swedish, and French into English, including Pentti Saarikoski's Trilogy (2003), for which he received the Harold Morton Landon Translation Award from the Academy of American Poets in 2004. He was also one of the early translators of Allen Ginsberg's poetry into German and Finnish. Hollo's poetry collections include Notes on the Possibilities and Attractions of Existence: New and Selected Poems, 1965-2000 (2001), which received the San Francisco Poetry Center Book Award. Anselm Hollo died on January 29, 2013 at the age of 78.

Series II: Writings, circa 1943–2016 and undated

6.17 linear feet (6 boxes)

This series contains drafts, notes, typescripts, manuscripts, and other materials related to works translated, written, or edited by Hollo. Included are Hollo's translations of poetry by Sonja Åkesson, Allen Ginsberg, Maria Ranier Gerhardt, Pavo Haavikko, Paul Klee, Pentti Saarikoski, Dylan Thomas, Matti Tiisala, and William Carlos Williams into English, French, Finnish, German, and Swedish. Original works by Hollo consist of poetry, articles, essays, and short stories. Works edited by Hollo include drafts of poetry and books by writers such as Joe Cardarelli, Joseph Gugliemi, and Piero Heliczer.

Writings can also be found in Series V. Personal and Professional Papers.

Organized into three subseries: Translations, Original Works, and Edited Works. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.
