Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections [as they are acquired], and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Lee Friedlander (1934-)

Lee Friedlander, born July 14, 1934, is an American photographer. Friedlander studied photography with Edward Kaminski at the Art Center School, Los Angeles, California. Friedlander has been a freelance photographer since 1955. In 1990, the MacArthur Foundation awarded Friedlander with MacArthur Fellowship. A major retrospective of his work was held at the Museum of Modern Art, New York, 2005. He is married to Maria Friedlander.

Scope and Contents

The papers of Lee Friedlander include photographs, correspondence, work files, book projects, printed materials, awards, objects, audiovisual materials, and computer disks documenting his career as a photographer, including his work process, exhibitions, publications, business activities, and honors. Photographs include color slide portraits of musicians; black and white slides; exhibition prints of western landscapes; and work prints corresponding to exhibition prints held by the Beinecke Library, Yale University, and the Yale University Art Gallery. The collection also includes personal papers documenting his relationships with family and friends, in particular his wife Maria Friedlander.

Collection Contents

Series I: Photographs, circa 1950 -2010

9.17 linear feet (50 boxes)

Color slides include 35mm and 120mm slides and primarily consist of portraits of jazz, country and western, rock, folk and soul musicians active in the late 1950s and early 1960s. They also include portraits of wrestlers and photographs of Iroquois crafts.

Black and white slides were received in a box labelled "Slides returned from Arles" and consist of approximately 850 slides of photographs by Friedlander. Slides are stored in binders and a slide boxes. Some of the pages of slides in the binders are labelled, including "New Portrait," "Nude," "Maria," "Cherry Blossom," "Desert," "Self Portrait," "New Self Portrait," and "Urban."

Exhibition prints include photographs from "Tetons, 1999" and western landscapes. Exhibition prints are 16" x 20".

Work prints include photographs from many of Lee Friedlander's publications, as well as other categories as assembled by Friedlander. The work prints correspond with exhibition prints held by the Beinecke Library of the Yale University Art Gallery. Works and series represented include the following: America by Car, Apples and Olives, At Work, The Desert Seen, Dreyfus, Fashion, Olmstead Landscapes, Pickup Beds, Stems, and "Tetons, 1999," among others. Work prints are 11" x 14".

Access to color slides is restricted for twenty years after the death of Lee Friedlander.

Work prints may not be exhibited or reproduced.

Photographs are arranged into four subseries: Color slides, Black and white slides, Exhibition prints, and Work prints. Exhibition and work prints are listed in the order in which they were kept and listed by Lee Friedlander.

Work prints
1943 11" x 14" black and white prints
(36 boxes)

Work prints may not be exhibited or reproduced.

Titles are transcribed from the reverse of each print, with the print number in parentheses. The negative number is noted when present.

Dates are derived from negative numbers and represent the year the photograph was taken.

Work prints are arranged alphabetically by title/category as assigned by Lee Friedlander. Within each group prints are listed in their original order as received from Friedlander.

	Original 78 The "original 78" refers to a group of exhibition prints that Lee Friedlander loaned to the Yale Art Gallery prior to the purchase of his collection. Because the prints cut across his works and topical categories (Sticks and Stones ; The Desert Seen ; Tetons, etc.), Lee Friedlander used the functional description "original 78" to refer to this group.

Series III: Work Files, 1960-2010*12.33 linear feet (15 boxes)*

Lee Friedlander's work files consist of a mix of correspondence, clippings, photocopies, printed material, and some photographs by others. Work files document a range of activities and areas of Friedlander's life: exhibitions, travel, publications, friends and family, business, awards and honors, etc.

Additional related materials are in Series I. Photographs, Series II. Correspondence, and Series V. Printed Material.

Beinecke staff arranged the work files into a rough chronological sequence. Files are grouped into folders with approximate year spans. Folders are organized into boxes by decade.
