CALL NUMBER: WA MSS S-2707

CREATOR: Kilpatrick, Jack Frederick (1915-1967)

TITLE: Kilpatrick collection of Cherokee manuscripts

DATES: 1870-1966

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 9.38 linear feet (23 boxes)

LANGUAGE: Cherokee

SUMMARY: The Kilpatrick collection of Cherokee manuscripts consists of material created and accumulated by Jack Kilpatrick and Anna Gritts Kilpatrick, dating from the 1890s to the 1960s. The material, entirely in the Cherokee syllabary, documents vernacular literacy in the Cherokee language, the practice of traditional medicine, social aspects of Christian religion and church organizations, dates and circumstances of death, funerary practices, and other topics relating to the history and culture of the Oklahoma Cherokee in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Medical formulae (also called prayers, incantations, conjurations, or sacred formulae) were collected from Cherokee practitioners by Jack Frederick and Anna Gritts Kilpatrick in the 1960s. Portions of these manuscripts have been published in English translation and/or transliterated Cherokee, and citations to published sources have been noted in the contents list.

Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Purchased from Alan Kilpatrick and Brick Row Book Shop on the Walter McClintock Memorial Fund and Frederick W. and Carrie S. Beinecke Fund for Western Americana, 1979-1983.

Conditions Governing Access

This material is open for research.

Conditions Governing Use

The Kilpatrick Collection of Cherokee Manuscripts is the physical property of the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University. Literary rights, including copyright, belong to the authors or their legal heirs and assigns. For further information, consult the appropriate curator.

Many Cherokee tribal members consider the medical formulae in this collection to be sacred or esoteric knowledge. Traditionally, their use is circumscribed by local protocols. Because of the nature of this material, Yale will not provide copies of medical formulae in the Collection, regardless of the means of reproduction, nor will it permit anyone to have access to the Collection with any device capable of copying materials in the Collection, including cameras and portable devices that include cameras.
