Preferred Citation

Cambodian Genocide Program, Yale University, Records (RU 902). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Processing Information

Yale University records are arranged and described at the accession level by the creating office. The University Archives creates collection level descriptive records, but typically does no further arrangement and description at the accession level.

Biographical / Historical

The Cambodian Genocide Program (CGP) at the Yale Center for International and Area Studies was created in 1994. Its establishment was funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of State. The program's mandate was to investigate, catalog, and make publicly available primary source material on the Khmer Rouge. The three components of the program are the program itself; the Documentation Center of Cambodia, which gathers and preserves documentation in Cambodia; and the Cambodia Justice Project, created to train Cambodians in international law.

Scope and Contents

The records consist of an implementation plan, reports, research material, correspondence, database printouts, and manuals documenting the Cambodian Genocide Program at Yale databases. Also includes oral history interviews and recorded visits to Cambodia by members of the Cambodian Genocide Project.

General note

Forms part of Yale Record Group 37 (YRG 37), Records of associations, institutes, centers, and organizations affiliated with Yale.

Arrangement

The records are arranged by accession.
