Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright status for collection materials is unknown, though much of the material in this collection is likely in the public domain. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Preferred Citation

Bernhard Knollenberg Collection (MS 26). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Processing Information

Materials related to Aaron Burr, B. Silliman, Theodore Woolsey, and E. G. Salisbury were transferred to the Burr Family Papers (MS 303), Silliman Family Papers (MS 450), Woolsey Family Papers (MS 562), and Salisbury Family Papers (MS 429) respectively. Additionally, some materials were transferred to folio-sized folders for preservation. The transfers resulted in gaps in the folder sequence.

Existence and Location of Copies

Correspondence to George Panton is available on microfilm (circa 125 frames on 1 reel, 35mm.) from Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library, at cost. Order no. HM199

Biographical / Historical

Yale University librarian (1938-1945); administrator in the Lend Lease Administration (1943-1944), Office of Strategic Services (1944-1945); U.S. Commissioner for the North-West Atlantic Fisheries (1950-1958).

Scope and Contents

The Bernhard Knollenberg Collection comprises original and copied manuscripts of American historical interest which were collected by the former Yale University Librarian in connection with his historical studies and presented to the Yale University Library in 31 accessions since 1939. Covering the entire span of American history, the collection is of major importance for the Colonial, Early National and Ante-Bellum

Periods and is frequently consulted by the leading scholars of these periods. The typed and photostatic copies of manuscripts were obtained from many libraries and historical societies and from private collections.

Bernhard Knollenberg (b. 1892) was University Librarian from 1938 to 1945 and Lecturer on the Law of Taxation during the academic year 1941-1942. A student of law and history, he held the following government posts: senior deputy administrator, Lend Lease Administration, 1943-1944; division deputy, Office of Strategic Services, 1944-1945; and, United States Commissioner for the North-West Atlantic Fisheries, 1950-1958. Mr. Knollenberg was the recipient of five academic degrees: B.A. Earlham, 1912; M.A. Harvard, 1914; LL.B. Harvard, 1916; Honorary M.A. Yale, 1939; and LL.D. Earlham, 1944. The following books by Mr. Knollenberg as well as a number of journal articles were based in whole or in part on the manuscripts in the collection: Washington and the Revolution: A Reappraisal, 1940; Whitewater Valley, 1946; Samuel Ward, 1952; Origin of the American Revolution, 1960; and George Washington: The Virginia Period, 1964.

The manuscripts and copies are arranged in chronological order in 1220 folders (15 document boxes) and are individually foldered and described. Most of the items are individually catalogued in the Union and Departmental Manuscript Catalogues. The collection was established with the gift of the Alvah Hunt Papers in 1939. Over 100 letters written during the period 1838-1855 to Alvah Hunt of Greene, Chenango County, New York describe the political issues of the time, especially Whig politics. The principal correspondents include Hamilton Fish, Horace Greeley, William H. Seward, and Thurlow Weed. Other groups of papers of interest are listed below:

1. The Leffingwell Collection of manuscripts at the New Haven Colony Historical Society. Gift, 1942. Photostats.
2. The George Panton Papers which were presented to the Reverend Dr. Chorley by the Bishop and the Synod of the Diocese of Aberdeen and Orkney in 1934 and given to the Library in 1940. The letters are from Anglican ministers who were Loyalists and who escaped to England during the Revolution. A few are from men who were never in America, but were deeply interested in the Church of England in America. The two principal correspondents are Daniel Batwell and Thomas Bradbury Chandler. Chandler graduated from Yale in 1745 (see Dexter's Yale Biographies and Annals, 1701-1745), moved to England in 1775 and returned to America in 1785. He was an important figure in the Anglican Church in America. George Panton, according to Sabine's American Loyalists, was in New York in 1783 and was one of the 55 Loyalists who petitioned for lands in Nova Scotia at that time.
3. Homer Sackett Curtiss Papers, consisting of 171 letters written to members of the Curtiss Family during his Civil War service in the 2nd Connecticut Volunteer Regiment, Heavy Artillery. Gift, 1939.
4. Nathaniel Greene Papers, including 35 original letters and documents by and relating to General Greene, 1779-1804. Gifts, 1943, 1944.

Arrangement

Arranged in two series: I. Correspondence, 1560, 1622-1942. II. General File, 1747-1827, 1858-1868, 1901-1940.

Collection Contents

Series I: Correspondence (Chronological), 1560-1943

5.5 linear feet (13 Boxes)

Series I contains letters, manuscripts, documents, reports, printed material and photostatic copies of original material. The folders are arranged chronologically, with undated material arranged alphabetically by author's name at the end of the series.

Topics covered include early colonial settlement, the American Revolution, slavery, The Ohio Company, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, woman suffrage, and various political questions in the individual states and the nation as a whole. Many important historical names are found, including George Washington, John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Benedict Arnold, Paul Revere, Marquis de Lafayette, Horatio Gates, John Hancock, John Jay, Philip Schuyler, Thomas Paine, Anthony Wayne, Eli Whitney, Henry Knox, Nathaniel Greene, John C. Fremont, John C. Calhoun, Daniel Webster, Benjamin Harrison, Robert Morris, Dorothea Dix, Susan B. Anthony, John Gibson Lockhart, John Singer Sargent, Edward Everett, Lewis Cass, William Sherman, E.C. Agassiz, James C. Dana, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin Roosevelt, Jay Norwood Darling, and Charles Beard.

A large number of letters are from Homer Sackett Curtiss, a Civil War soldier, to his family. Another group of letters are to Alvah Hunt, New York political figure, from William Seward, Governor Hamilton Fish, Thurlow Weed, Daniel Webster, Millard Fillmore, and Washington Hunt. A third voluminous mass of the series consists of material such as deeds, tax receipts, and correspondence pertaining to Joel Barlow and his dealings with the Ohio Company.

Various narrative accounts and diaries are found in the series. These cover settlement of the West and biographical sketches of War heroes and frontiersmen.

See Also: Series II for writings which complement correspondence found in Series I.
