Biographical / Historical

Charles A. Bristed, Jr. was the son of author and scholar Charles Astor Bristed and Grace Sedgwick Bristed.

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of notebooks and a letterbook of Charles Astor Bristed, Jr. (fl. 1887-1904). Son of the scholar and author Charles Astor Bristed (1820-1874) and his second wife, Grace Sedgwick, and a great-grandson of John Jacob Astor, Bristed was a member of the American social elite, as reflected in his letterbook. This records primarily business and financial correspondence for the years 1888 through 1904; many of the letters deal with property owned by Bristed. The same picture of affluence is presented in the travel journal of Bristed's wife for 1906, which they spent with their children in Italy and France.

The remaining papers in this collection are six notebooks kept by Bristed while he was a student at Stonyhurst College in England. Topics include ethics, religion, philosophy, and theology.
