CALL NUMBER: MS 2007

CREATOR: Greater New Haven Coalition for People

TITLE: Greater New Haven Coalition for People records

DATES: 1981-2014

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 12.25 linear feet (23 boxes)

LANGUAGE: The material is in English and Spanish.

SUMMARY: The collection comprises records of the Greater New Haven Coalition for People, a grassroots organization that advocates for lower and middle income residents of New Haven, Connecticut. Materials include correspondence, financial and fundraising records, files on topics and events that the Coalition worked on, and posters and protest signs. Materials date from 1981 to 2014. Much of the collection concerns different issues the Coalition focused on, including the removal of bus stops from the City of New Haven, medical care for the low-income and uninsured in the local hospitals, conditions of public housing, and programs like the West Rock Youth Leadership Program and Tenants Against Drugs Dammit!

Biographical / Historical

The Greater New Haven Coalition for People was founded in 1981 as an umbrella group of different community agencies and organizations that were concerned about the effect of budget cuts on programs in the city of New Haven, Connecticut. Soon it evolved into a grassroots organization run by a board of directors and work mainly undertaken by volunteers and some paid organizers that focused on organizing local residents. Coalition for People addresses a variety of issues that impact the low and middle income residents of New Haven, including conditions and safety of public housing, health care, public transit safety and availability, and programs for children and adolescents.

Scope and Contents

The collection comprises records of the Greater New Haven Coalition for People, a grassroots organization that advocates for lower and middle income residents of New Haven, Connecticut. Materials include correspondence, financial and fundraising records, files on topics and events that the Coalition worked on, and posters and protest signs. Materials date from 1981 to 2014. Series III: Meeting agendas and minutes, 1988-2014

Series III contains agendas and minutes from monthly meetings, annual meetings, board meetings, and conventions. Monthly meetings focused on the financial status of Coalition for People and projects that were in progress. Annual meetings focused on projects in progress, organization structure review and work towards new projects. Board meetings focused on the budget and direction of projects for Coalition for People. Conventions focused on action sessions for such interest areas as youth empowerment, public housing issues and health care. Conventions also provided resources for the New Haven community in the same interest areas.

Series IV: Topical files, 1981-2010

Topical files cover a diverse range of subjects of interest to Coalition for People and events Coalition for People held and/or participated in. Also included with the topical files are materials related to three different major projects undertaken by the Coalition. These include stopping, then reversing the removal of bus stops by the City of New Haven after the city's agreement with the Omni Hotel; health care and health insurance initiatives to help lower income residents of New Haven; and the West Rock Youth Leadership Program, a summer program which provided children of that neighborhood classes, mentorships, and recreational opportunities.
