Conditions Governing Access

The Yale School of Music D.M.A. Papers are open for research to current D.M.A. candidates at the Yale School of Music, for use as models. Other researchers may have access only with written permission from the subject.

Because the correspondence files contain confidential academic evaluations, they will remain sealed until 75 years after the D.M.A. was awarded. These files have been removed from their original boxes and compiled into separate boxes as restricted materials.

Original computer files may not be accessed due to their fragility. Researchers must consult access copies.

Conditions Governing Use

The Yale School of Music Papers are the property of the Irving S. Gilmore Music Library of Yale University. Copyrights belong to the composers and authors, or their legal heirs and assigns.

Preferred Citation

MSS 13, The Yale School of Music D.M.A. Papers in the Irving S. Gilmore Music Library of Yale University.

---

Processing Information

The original file structure for the computer files in this collection has been maintained.

Physical Characteristics and Technical Requirements

Dossiers created in and after 2015 are comprised of computer files, predominately document files (PDFs), audio files (MP4s), and image files (Jpegs).

Biographical / Historical

The Doctor of Musical Arts degree program of the Yale School of Music was approved in 1968; the first degrees were awarded in 1973. As a prerequisite, candidates must have received the Master of Musical Arts degree from Yale, and then spend three to five years demonstrating their qualifications through distinguished achievement in their profession. Upon applying for the D.M.A. degree, the candidates submit a dossier of evidence demonstrating their professional competence and accomplishments. This evidence may include programs, brochures, reviews, compositions, recordings, publications, and other materials. Candidates are also required to give a recital and undergo an oral examination. Each year, the School of Music sends dossiers from successful candidates to the Library to become part of the D.M.A. Papers.

Scope and Contents

The Yale School of Music D.M.A. Papers document the professional activities of successful candidates for the degree of Doctor of Musical Arts. The Papers cover a degree candidate's activities between receipt of the Master of Musical Arts degree and return for the D.M.A. degree. Included in the Papers are scrapbooks, correspondence, programs, reviews, sound recordings, and printed books and musical scores.

Arrangement

Materials are arranged chronologically by year of degree, and alphabetically by last name therein. Dates for candidate dossiers were determined by year of degree.

Original order has been maintained for born-digital materials. No further arrangement work has been done.
