Biographical / Historical

Chronology of Culver and Gleysteen families

- 1861 January 21 ○ Theodore Baker Culver, father of Theodora Culver (Gleysteen), was born in Philadelphia.
- 1866 October 23 ○ Annie J. Skilton Wallace (Culver), mother of Theodora Culver (Gleysteen), was born in Philadelphia.
- 1876 July 17 ○ William H. Gleysteen was born in Alton, Iowa, the son of Dirk Gleysteen and Klazina van der Linden Gleysteen.
- 1883 ○ Theodora Culver was born in Elkins Park, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Theodore Baker Culver and Annie Skilton Wallace Culver.
- 1897 ○ William H. Gleysteen received BA from the University of Michigan after transferring from Grinnell College. He went on to complete graduate studies at Union Theological Seminary and Columbia University and was ordained in Brooklyn.
- 1905 ○ William H. Gleysteen began his mission work in China, serving under the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. He was engaged in educational work in Beijing (Peking), mainly at Truth Hall, a high school for boys, where he was Head of School, but also in organizing Presbyterian educational work throughout North China.
- 1907 ○ William H. Gleysteen married Alice Carter.
- 1910 ○ Alice Wilhelmina Gleysteen born, daughter of William H. and Alice Carter Gleysteen. She later married Rev. William Scott Morton of Edinburgh, Scotland.
- 1912 ○ Theodore Carter Gleysteen was born, son of William and Alice Gleysteen. He later graduated from Yale in 1934.
- 1914 ○ Margaret Gleysteen was born, daughter of William and Alice Gleysteen.
- 1916 ○ Theodora Culver received BA from Wilson College. She went on to receive a Master's degree in history from the University of Pennsylvania.
- 1917 ○ Theodora Culver began mission work in China, serving under the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church.
- 1917 ○ Alice Carter Gleysteen, wife of William Gleysteen, died in China.
- 1920 June ○ William Gleysteen and Theodora Culver were married in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania.

- 1940-1942 ○ The Gleysteens returned to China in 1940 and were in Beijing (Peking) when the United States entered the war against Japan. In December 1941 Japanese soldiers surrounded the Beijing (Peking) compound and Gleysteens were placed under house arrest. After a time the gate guards were removed but William and the Gleysteen sons were required to wear red armbands when out in the street, indicating that they were Americans.
- 1943 March ○ American and British residents in Beijing (Peking) were notified by Japanese authorities to go to the Civilian Assembly Center at Weixian, Shandong (Weihsien, Shantung) where the former Presbyterian compound had been made ready to receive about 1800 internees from North China. Theodora, William, William, Jr., and Dirk Gleysteen were interned at Weixian (Weihsien).
- 1943 September ○ Gleysteen family was among the American and Canadian citizens repatriated, leaving China on the Teia Maru and then transferring to the S.S. Gripsholm.
- 1944 ○ Upon return to the United States, the Gleysteens stayed at the home of Theodora's mother in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania. William worked for the Presbyterian Board of Missions, presenting the cause of missions in the New York and Philadelphia areas.
- 1948 January 18 ○ William H. Gleysteen died in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania.
- 1957 ○ Annie Wallace Culver, Theodora's mother, died.
- 1976 May ○ Theodora Culver Gleysteen died in Pennsylvania.

Scope and Contents

This collection provides extensive detailed documentation of the life and work of Theodora Culver Gleysteen and William H. Gleysteen, American Presbyterian missionaries based in Beijing (Peking) (now Beijing), North China from 1905 to 1943. The Gleysteens were engaged in educational work, primarily at Truth Hall, a high school for boys.

The collection is notable for the regular and substantive documentation that it contains. The collection centers around the family of Theodora Culver Gleysteen and includes papers related to her parents,

Theodore Baker Culver and Annie Wallace Culver, thus providing a valuable longterm picture of the background and family interactions of a missionary wife, mother, and teacher during the first half of the twentieth century. Documentation of the Gleysteens' and Culvers' lives and work includes detailed, regular letters exchanged primarily with Theodora's parents, diaries, writings, memorabilia, and photographs.

In addition to his education-related work for the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church (USA) William Gleysteen was president of the American Association in Peking, and served as a director of Yenching University, the Peking American School, and the College of Chinese Studies. For a period he was a member of the International Famine Relief Commission.

Theodora Culver Gleysteen taught English at Truth Hall and engaged in relief work during the war in addition to being the mother of five children and three stepchildren. The Gleysteen children attended Peking American School.

Theodora and William Gleysteen and their two youngest children were interned at the Weihsien internment camp for several months in 1943.

A DVD containing digital scans of substantial portions of the documents and photographs in this collection is contained in Box 1 Folder 1.

Series I: Correspondence

Theodora Culver Gleysteen and William H. Gleysteen: family correspondence

The letters in this subseries are primarily from Theodora Culver Gleysteen and her husband William H. Gleysteen to Theodora's family but other correspondence and enclosures are also included as noted. The materials were taken from a series of notebook binders that were compiled by the Gleysteen family. In this subseries, the initials TCG are used to refer to Theodora Culver Gleysteen both before and after her marriage to William H. Gleysteen. The initials WHG refer to Theodora's husband William.
