Biographical / Historical

Technoserve was founded in 1968 by Edward P. Bullard to combat poverty in the developing world. Bullard had previously served as a manager of a hospital in Ghana, appointed to the position by the United Church Board for World Ministries. After leaving that position Bullard started Technoserve with a mission to help lift people out of poverty through their own efforts. Bullard served as the president and chief executive officer (CEO) for 28 years. Technoserve works with the rural poor to provide them with informational, technological, and financial resources for the building of competitive farms, businesses, and industries. As of 2020, Technoserve is active in twenty-nine countries in Africa, Eurasia, and the Americas.

Scope and Contents

The collection includes administrative files, records from Technoserve presidents Edward P. Bullard and Peter Reiling, files and grant information related to Technoserve's work in Africa, Asia, and the Americas, and newsletters. Administrative files contain business records, meeting and committee files and notes, financial records, and correspondence. Records from the Office of the President include administrative files, correspondence, and writings and speeches by Edward P. Bullard and Peter Reiling. Country files and files relating to grant agreements contain business records and correspondence regarding Technoserve's work in countries of the developing world. The collection also includes Technoserve's newsletters documenting the organization's outreach.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged into five series and one addition: I. Administrative files, 1979-2010. II. Office of the President records, 1967-2001. III. Country files, 1993-2010. IV. Expired grant agreements, 1991-2012. V. Newsletters, 1989-2011.

Accession 2019-M-0022: Additional material, 1963–2011

This accession consists of photographs, negatives, and slides documenting Technoserve's work of combating poverty in Africa, Asia, the Americas, and Europe. Materials document the work and projects undertaken in specific countries, as well as Technoserve's operations, events, and staff in the United States.

This accession is arranged into two groupings: Countries and Technoserve events, staff, and marketing.

Countries		1969–2005
This grouping consists primarily of photographs, photographic negatives, and slides from Technoserve's projects throughout the world. Most materials are from between the 1970s and the early 2000s.
Processing staff maintained items in the folders and order in which they were received. Multiple folders within the same country grouping may include overlapping years or date spans.
Files are organized alphabetically by country.
