Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

Material formerly housed in three-ring binders was removed for preservation purposes.

Sandi Carroll

Sandi Carroll is an American actor, educator, director and producer. She received a Bachelor's of Fine Arts degree from Boston University, and a Master's of Fine Arts degree from the University of Virginia. In 1995 and 1996, Carroll worked as August Wilson's assistant and dramaturg on early productions of his play Seven Guitars.
