Conditions Governing Use

The Jessica Helfand Scrapbook Collection is the physical property of the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University. Literary rights, including copyright, belong to the authors or their legal heirs and assigns. For further information, consult the appropriate curator.

Preferred Citation

Jessica Helfand Scrapbook Collection. General Collection, Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University.

Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Descriptions of individual scrapbooks are derived from a database provided by Jessica Helfand.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

b. 10	Graduation Memories of Hazel Wiggins, Hazel Caroline , compiler This memory book was compiled by Hazel Caroline Wiggins. Category: Memory Books. School Books. GRADUATION MEMORIES OF HAZEL. The title page says: LIFE'S FIRST MAJOR TASK COMPLETED. EVENTS THAT WILL NEVER FADE FROM THE MEMORY OF "Hazel Caroline Wiggins." The name was filled in by the owner of the book. She graduated June 12, 1930 and two little snippets of blue and silver fabric from her graduation gown were saved. She graduated from Duluth Central High School, Duluth, Minnesota. Tucked in the book are her graduation announcement, the program from the commencement, the program from "Class Night," and the bulletin from the preceding Sunday from her church the First Methodist Church from a service dedicated to the new graduates. It seems a bit poignant. She filled out the page listing her gifts and her activities the day of graduation, but no friends or faculty signed and there were no clubs or dances or parties. An example of her entries: On June 8th she returned from the church service and wrote: "On returning home I found no one home so spent most of the day by myself except that I went down to Leif Ericcson [sic] Park in the afternoon and listened to the concert given by Duluth Central's High School Band. One of the numbers was "America." Everyone stood up and it was quite thrilling to see people standing all over the hillside and the band playing. In the evening I studied awhile for examinations, and then sat out in the porch swing with Mrs. Bendickson, one of Newell Bendickson's friends threw a ball through the window next door." The pages are held together but the staples pulled loose from the spine. The book	circa 1930 measures 7" x 5 1/4". There are some scratches on the suede as you can see in the picture.

Category: Baby Books.

Opening quote: 'Who hath not saved some trifling thing, More prized than jewels rare, A faded flower, a broken ring, a tress of golden hair.' (poem by Ellen C. Howarth, aka Clementine) Only illustrations -- no headings -- but intro says they are for 'illnesses, injuries, response to rhythm and music, creative tendencies, special aptitudes, etc.

Record book published by The Mothers Aid/Chicago Lying-In Hospital. 'In presenting the delightfully illustrated Scrapbook, we make possible an orderly collection of those priceless mementoes that too frequently are lost or damaged beyond repair. A small cardboard box, yellow with age, may serve very well as a movie prop but it is a sorry container for the precious and irreplaceable leap to life once again, reminders that make up the color and patterns of a child's life. Cherished memories of the past are recalled and live again as you turn the pages of this Scrapbook. Each event, insignificant or important, recedes into forgetfulness until the Scrapbook is opened and there, before you, your memories.'

b. 41	A Girl's Graduation Days - scrapbook and loose papers 2 Folders This scrapbook was compiled by Lydia Blanchard. I purchased this book from an estate sale in Natchitoches inn the early 1980's. Lydia Blanchard was the class historian and also a very accomplished artist, as can be evidenced by her artwork in this book. It includes many drawings, articles, letters, autographs, cartoons, photographs, ephemera (they played a lot of bridge so there are some wonderful tallies) and writings and views of an 18 year old girl at the time of her graduation and entry into the world. Lydia Blanchard graduated from St. Mary's Academy in Natchitoches, LA. She talks about the parties they had, the food they ate and just everyday thoughts of a young girl. One page she talks about "Eskimo Pies" and how much they loved them. You can tell it was a very important and exciting time for her. There was also some loose papers, articles, letters and other miscellaneous items in the box the book came in. One interesting item in this lot is a Souvenir Ticket stating that Lydia had traveled by automobile over the Pikes Peak Auto Highway to the summit of Pikes Peak, dated Aug. 20, 1922.	circa 1922
b. 41	Schoolgirl Days: A Memory Book This memory book was compiled by Alice Margaret Sweemer. Category: Memory Books. My class; year; yell; motto; colors; flower; description of class pin; my classmates; their autographs and Photographs; class officers; the faculty; my favorite teachers; their autographs and photographs; favorite studies; societies; the glee club; the dramatic club; spreads and entertainments; stunts & jokes; proms- dances-hops; sports & athletics; the teams; clippings & press notices; rushes & mass meetings; invitations & programs; holidays; reunions; kodak snap-shots; commencement; class history; class prophecy; class poem; baccalaureate sermon; and miscellaneous. Built in 1910 the high school opened just as the formerly quiet hamlet of Hollywood was first being overrun by movie producers. By the 20s, it became the school of choice for the children of movie stars. But as the neighborhood grew more seedy with the passing years, and with a change in school district boundaries, most of the well-to-do Hollywood parents stopped sending their children to Hollywood High, opting instead for schools like Beverly Hills High and Santa Monica High.	circa 1913

'During the last year, we had no Texcel Cellophane Tape for general distribution, and probably won't have for some time to come. Our present production is devoted to the war effort. But we didn't want our millions of friends throughout the United States to forget us. We wanted to keep reminding them that Texcel Tape would be back, after the war. And may we hope that this 'Scrapbook' will help you remember Texcel pleasantly, when it is again available.'	1943

b. 59 WWII Air Force Scrapbook: My Life in The Forces 1942

Category: Army Books.

"My First Photograph in Uniform" and "My Best Girl's Photograph"; "Records and Notes"; "Autographs"; "Personal Service Records"; "Names and Addresses of Family and Friends"; "Names of Officers"; "Birthdays and Occasions I Must Not Forget"; "Physical Record"; "Gifts Received While in the Service"; "Foreign Places and Countries I Visited" and "Discharged from the Service"

"We have purposely omitted numerous sub-headings on the white sheets to enable you to enter your own data, as the occasion may require--such as promotions, transfers, furloughs, maneuvers, athletics, range records, etc. / We suggest keeping SNAPS and SCRAPs in the mailing box--it will not only keep it clean but can be used for remailing if you should desire to send 'SNAPS and SCRAPs' home for your parents, wife or sweetheart to keep up to date for you."

"Snaps and Scraps has been developed in accordance with personal views and preferences of men in the services. They expressed a section of white paper, suitable for writing with ink, on which they could record their military life. The most decided preference was for a pocket to file the clippings, photos, letters from home and miscellaneous material, until ready to mount in the SNAP or SCRAP sections, or otherwise to be disposed of. / The flexible cover permits rolling of the entire book if so desired. The size is not large enough to be cumbersome in the limited storage space available to service men."
