Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection or revisions in arrangement and description.

Jan Erik Bouman (1947-2010)

Jan Erik Bouman was a Dutch printer and friend of American writer James Purdy. He operated the small press Hugin & Munin in Utrecht, Netherlands, from 1995 until his death. Bouman printed several works by Purdy.

James Purdy (1914-2009)

James Purdy was an American author, poet, translator, and playwright. His early works include the short story collections 63: Dream Palace (1956) and Color of Darkness (1961), and the novels Malcolm (1959), which was adapted for the stage by Edward Albee in 1966, and Eustace Chisholm and the Works (1967). As a playwright, Purdy's best-known work is Cracks, produced Off-Broadway in 1963. His later works include Collected Poems (1990), Out with the Stars (1992), and Moe's Villa and Other Stories (2000, 2005).
