Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards. For more information, please refer to the Beinecke Manuscript Unit Processing Manual.

Biographical / Historical

E. Hamilton Lee (1892-1994) of Paris, Illinois, was an instructor in the flying division of the United States Army Signal Corps during World War I. After leaving the military, he joined the U.S. Air Mail Service Division of the U.S. Post Office Department. He was hired by Boeing Air Transport in 1927, when the Post Office Department stopped flying the mail. Boeing merged with other carriers in 1934, becoming United Air Lines. Lee retired in 1949 after a 36-year aviation career.
