Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards. For more information, please refer to the Beinecke Manuscript Unit Processing Manual.

Biographical / Historical

Daniel Webster Buck (1840-1892) of Lancaster, New York, enlisted in the United States Army 8th Regiment Illinois Volunteer Cavalry, Company E, on 1861 September 5, and was mustered into service as first sergeant on 1861 September 18. Buck joined the Army of the Potomac with his regiment on 1861 October 17 and became first lieutenant of his company on 1862 July 17. He received his captain's commission in 1862 December and was placed upon recruiting service in Illinois circa 1863 October, after receiving a saber wound to the head and bullet wound to the leg. Buck continued to serve until 1864 October 10, when he was mustered out of service on account of his injuries. Following his military service, Buck resided in Helena, Montana, where he was U.S. Deputy Marshal circa 1866 to 1874, and acting agent for the Blackfeet Indian Agency from 1873 to 1876.
