Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Biographical / Historical

Grenfell Press, founded by Leslie Miller in 1979, specializes in artists books, limited edition prints, artist portfolios and collaborative publications, with many fine prints and artist books in major collections. Over Grenfell Press's 46 years, the press has collaborated with a wide variety of artists and writers, including John Ashbery, William Burroughs, Robert Creeley, Susan Howe, Ann Lauterbach, Eliot Weinberger, Vija

Celmins, Francesco Clemente, Carroll Dunham, Robert Gober, R.B. Kitaj, Robert Mangold, Brice Marden, Frank Moore, Elizabeth Murray, Joel Shapiro, Kiki Smith, Nathaniel Tarn, Fred Tomaselli, Richard Tuttle, and Trevor Winkfield. Experimentation with the print medium and an immense attention to detail is a hallmark of Grenfell Press, resulting in books, prints, and portfolios printed on wide ranges of paper types and using traditional to more experimental printing techniques—from woodblock to lithograph to photogravure.

In addition to running Grenfell Press, Leslie Miller also designs and produces posters, catalogues and museum monographs for institutions including James Cohan Gallery, Detroit Institute of Arts, Gagosian Gallery, Luhring Augustine, Matthew Marks, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Modern Art, New Directions, the New York Public Library, and the Whitney Museum of American Art.

Scope and Contents

The Grenfell Press Collection consists of business materials, correspondence, photographs, prints, artist and printer's proofs, original artwork, typescripts, broadsides, printing blocks, artist books, posters, and ephemera related to and created in the operations of Grenfell Press. Included are production materials for publications, as well as other printed material such as letterhead and greeting cards. The material in the collection spans 1972 to 2021, documenting Grenfell Press' activities as a highly collaborative endeavor, bringing together artists, writers, and printers in the production of every publication.

The collection highlights the breadth of printing techniques and materials Grenfell Press experimented with, from natural Japanese paper to heavy fiber paper, woodblock to lithograph. Illustrated in the collection are the many stages of printing undertaken by Grenfell Press in the process of creating their editions.
