Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit. Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing. This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Jonathan Dodd (1936-2017)

Jonathan Dodd (1936-2017) was an American publisher and book collector. Born in Boston in 1936, Dodd spent the majority of his life moving between Connecticut and Rhode Island. After graduating from Yale University in 1958, he joined the publishing house Dodd, Mead, & Company, founded by his great-great grandfather, Moses W. Dodd, in 1839. Dodd eventually assumed the role of president of the company prior to its closure in 1990. He died on January 3, 2017, in Westerly, Rhode Island.
