Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Thomas Meyer (1947-)

Thomas Meyer is an American poet, author, librettist, and translator. He was born in Seattle, Washington on February 14, 1947. He attended Bard College in New York, graduating in 1969 with a B.A. in Old and Middle English. In 1968, Meyer met poet and photographer Jonathan Williams (1929-2008), who would become his longtime romantic partner. Williams co-founded The Jargon Society in 1951, a small arts foundation and press focused on poetry, photography, and the celebration of Southern folk art. From 1968 to 2008, Meyer served as the Assistant Director of The Jargon Society. During these 40 years, he assisted in the publication of over 50 works, including pamphlets, journals, and poetry collections. Meyer received the National Endowment for the Arts Creative Fellowship in Poetry in 1980, the Ingram-Merrill Award for Poetry in 1982, and the Creative Fellowship for Librettists in 1987. His works of poetry include Coromandel (2003) and Essay Stanzas (2014), and his poems have appeared in the journals Conjunctions, First Intensity, and Oyster Boy Review, among others. Meyer is also known for several works of translation, including Sappho (1982), Daode Jing (2005), and Beowulf (2012). He currently lives in North Carolina with his husband Michael Watt.
