Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Tereze Glück (1945-2018)

Tereze Glück was born on October 20, 1945 in Woodmere, Long Island, New York. She graduated from Vassar College and worked as Vice President of Citibank for over thirty years. Her collection of short stories May You Live in Interesting Times won the Iowa Short Fiction Award in 1994. She was also a frequent contributor to the New York Times Opinion section and various magazines and journals, including North American Review, Antioch Review, Gettysburg Review, Fiction, Epoch, and Story.

Glück was the younger sister of Louise Glück, a former U.S. Poet Laureate, Yale Rosenkranz Writer-in-Residence, and winner of the 2020 Nobel Prize in Literature. Glück's daughter is actor Abigail Savage. Glück died on December 16, 2018 in New York City

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of materials by or relating to American author and businesswoman Tereze Glück, including correspondence, writings, and personal papers. Among the correspondents are her immediate family, friends, and colleagues, including her sister Louise Glück and journalist Michael Curtis. Writings consist of notes and drafts of Glück's short stories, poetry, articles, and other works, including materials relating to May You Live in Interesting Times, as well as notebooks. Personal papers contain materials such as Glück's diary and high school yearbook, photographs, newspaper clippings, and ephemera.
