Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection or revisions in arrangement and description.

Annie Finch (1956-)

Annie Finch is an American poet, translator, critic, performance artist, and educator. Her collections of poetry include Eve (1997) and Calendars (2003), which were finalists for the National Poetry Series, and Spells: New and Selected Poems (2012). Finch's other works include the verse play Among the Goddesses: An Epic Libretto in Seven Dreams (2010) and the opera Marina (2003). She has written or edited a number of books on poetics and poetry, such as A Formal Feeling Comes: Poems in Form by Contemporary Women (1993), The Ghost of Meter: Culture and Prosody in American Free Verse (1994), Carolyn Kizer: Perspectives on Her Life and Work (2001), An Exaltation of Forms: Contemporary Poets Celebrate the Diversity of Their Art (2003), and The Body of Poetry: Essays on Women, Form, and the Poetic Self (2004). Finch also edited the anthology Choice Words: Writers on Abortion (2020).

In 2013, Finch founded American Witch Enterprises, an online community and marketplace. In 2021, she founded Poetry Witch Press.

Finch graduated from Yale University with a B.A. in English in 1979, earned an M.A. in poetry and verse drama from the University of Houston in 1983, and completed a Ph.D. at Stanford University, where she studied versification, in 1990. She was the director of the Stonecoast MFA Creative Writing Program at the University of Southern Maine for ten years and has lectured on meter and poetry at institutions including the University of Toronto, University of California, Berkeley, and Harvard University.

Finch married Glen Brand in 1985, and they have two children, Althea Finch-Brand and Julian Finch-Brand.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of writings, journals, correspondence and literary business files, teaching materials, personal and family papers, and computer and audiovisual media documenting the career and life of American author Annie Finch. Included are drafts, ephemera, publishing correspondence, notes, and other materials relating to poetry collections and chapbooks by Finch, such as Among the Goddesses, The Encyclopedia of Scotland, Eve, Calendars, and Spells; books on poetics, such as The Body of Poetry, The Ghost of Meter, and A Poet's Craft; and edited or co-edited works, among them After New Formalism, An Exaltation of Forms, A Formal Feeling Comes, and Villanelles. Also included are Finch's writings on feminism and abortion; The Complete Poetry and Prose of Louise Labé: A Bilingual Edition, with poems translated by Finch; Marina, an opera libretto by Finch; and college and graduate school papers. The collection contains correspondence with colleagues, former teachers, editors, publishers, and friends, including Marie Borroff, Toi Derricotte, Jonathan Galassi, Marilyn Hacker, Langdon Hammer, Joy Harjo, John Hollander, Carolyn Kizer, Maxine Kumin, Diane Middlebrook, Molly Peacock, Adrienne Rich, Grace Schulman, and Ntozake Shange. Teaching materials consist of notes, correspondence, syllabi, and readings for Finch's courses at the Stonecoast MFA program at the University of Southern Maine and Miami University of Ohio, as well as independent workshops.

Personal and family papers contain correspondence with Finch's parents, husband, children, and other relatives; artwork and realia; files pertaining to American Witch Enterprises, an online community and marketplace founded by Finch; and photographs and scrapbooks. Also included is research for an unpublished book by Finch on her great-aunt, educator and activist Jessie Wallace Hughan, and writings of her mother Margaret Rockwell Finch and father Henry Le Roy Finch.

Series V: Personal and Family Papers, 1848–201530.8 linear feet (30 boxes)*

This series consists of correspondence, artwork, photographs, memorabilia, writings, and printed material by or relating to Annie Finch, her parents Henry Le Roy Finch and Margaret Rockwell Finch, and other family.

Organized into three subseries: Annie Finch, Henry Le Roy Finch, and Margaret Finch.

Annie Finch

This subseries contains personal and family correspondence, files on American Witch Enterprises, and materials relating to spirituality, paganism, and tarot, as well as versions of Finch's unpublished memoirs and research she conducted for a biography of Jessie Wallace Hughan. Also included are a large amount of chronological "archive" files with materials concerning Finch's career as an author and educator.

Materials roughly maintain order found at time of acquisition.
