Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit. These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards. For more information, please refer to the Beinecke Manuscript Unit Processing Manual.

Henry Schollhorn (1848-1923)

Henry Schollhorn was a German American artist, miner, and grocer. He was born Jacob Heinrich Schöllhorn in Heidenheim, Germany, the eldest of son of Maria Magdalena Weidner Schöllhorn (1819-1900) and Heinrich Schöllhorn (1822-1873). Schollhorn immigrated to the United States between 1864 and 1866, and initially lived in Arizona and Nevada until he relocated to Portland, Oregon in 1876. He worked as a grocer at 377 4th Street in Portland until he retired approximately 1905. In 1878, he married Ellen Herbert Terry Schollhorn (1849-1895) and they had four children. Schollhorn died at Portland, Oregon.

Scope and Contents

Collection of pen and ink drawings as well as pencil sketches by Henry Schollhorn, approximately 1916-1917, that document sites in Oregon and Washington with a particular emphasis on Portland, Oregon, and the surrounding area.

Twenty-one pen and ink drawings on nineteen sheets include nineteen views of sites in Portland, Oregon, consisting of street scenes and views of buildings including the American Hotel and the Independent German School, as well as two views of Mount Hood.

Forty-nine pencil sketches on thirty-four sheets include views of sites in Oregon and Washington as well as a portrait of a dog.

Twenty-six pencil sketches document street scenes and architectural views of buildings in Portland, Oregon, including the First Congregational Church (later known as the First Congregational United Church of Christ), the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Pioneer Courthouse, Portland High School, and the Saint David of Wales Episcopal Church.

Ten pencil sketches of additional locations in Oregon include vistas of Milwaukie and the nearby Elk Rock Island in the Willamette River as well as views of the city hall and James John High School in St. James in addition to sketches of Mount Hood and Oregon City.

Four pencil sketches document places in Washington including Mount Saint Helens and Vancouver.

Eight pencil copy sketches reproduce historic sites in Oregon and Washington copied by Schollhorn after photographs and engravings. This component includes Oregon views of Astoria, the Bridal Veil Falls, Saddle Mountain, and the Oregon Portage Railroad as well as Fort Vancouver and Seattle in Washington, in addition to a view of the steamer Beaver.
