TITLE: Collection of advertisements that depict American history

DATES: 1870–2004, 1870–2004

BULK DATES: 1887–1970, 1887–1970

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 19.5 linear feet (30 boxes)

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 19.5 linear feet (30 boxes)

LANGUAGE: In English, Italian, German, French, Dutch, and Spanish.

SUMMARY: This collection consists of collecting cards, advertising cards, sticker books, sheet music, and printed ephemera that document popular culture images of the United States and North America, as viewed chiefly by countries throughout Europe, including France, Great Britain, Belgium, Germany, Italy, and Spain. The collection provides depictions of American subjects and themes from primarily European viewpoints used by companies to advertise their products or as premiums accompanying products. Subjects particularly well represented include Indigenous peoples of North America and the American West, as well as natural landscapes and historical events, such as national parks and the American Civil War. Prominent individuals represented in the collection include United States presidents, particularly George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, and historical figures including Daniel Boone, Sitting Bull, Kit Carson, and Wyatt Earp.
