Conditions Governing Use

The Camille Paglia papers is the physical property of the Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University. Literary rights, including copyright, belong to the authors or their legal heirs and assigns.

Preferred Citation

Camille Paglia papers (MS 2134). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Processing Information

Material from three accessions were combined during processing. See "Immediate Source of Acquisition" for more information. Original order has been maintained for correspondence, cover stories, press clips, and cartoons. Media work, media interviews, and posters have been organized chronologically to facilitate use. Newsprint in several series has been housed in mylar sleeves to mitigate acid transfer to other materials.

Biographical / Historical

Camille Paglia (1947-) is an American academic, author, and social critic. She received a Master's in Philosophy in 1971 and a Ph.D. in 1974 from Yale University. She went on to teach at Bennington College in Vermont and at University of the Arts in Philadelphia. She has also worked as a columnist for Salon magazine and as a contributing editor for Interview magazine, and she currently serves on the Editorial Board for Arion: A Journal of Humanities and the Classics. Paglia has written and spoken extensively on social topics including feminism, sex, literature, film, fine arts, music, politics, and popular culture. Paglia identifies as a lesbian and as transgender, which she has discussed in media interviews. Her first book, Sexual Personae: Art and Decadence from Nefertiti to Emily Dickinson, published in 1990 by Yale University Press, explores sexual themes in art and literature. By 1991, the book had become a bestseller, bringing Paglia into the public eye.

Scope and Contents

The collection contains Paglia's professional papers including business and fan correspondence, recordings of her media interviews, written interviews, articles and columns written by Paglia, press material relating to Paglia and her work, and posters promoting her books and speaking events. The collection does not include any manuscripts of her books.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged in seven series: I. Correspondence, II. Media Work, III. Media Interviews, IV. Cover Stories, V. Press Clips, VI. Cartoons, VII. Posters.
