The collection is open for research.

Conditions Governing Use

The Daniel Asia Papers are the physical property of the Irving S. Gilmore Music Library of Yale University. Copyrights belong to the composers and authors, or their legal heirs and assigns.

Preferred Citation

MSS 91, Daniel Asia Papers in the Irving S. Gilmore Music Library of Yale University.

Scope and Contents

The Daniel Asia papers contain manuscripts, scores and sketches of Asia's compositions, including symphonies and orchestral works; chamber works; cello and piano concertos, as well as other piano and solo instrumental compositions; song cycles and choral works and corresponding orchestral arrangements; and Asia's opera Tin Angel. The papers also include correspondence relating to fundraising, programming, recording, and commissions; photographic prints and negatives including headshots, publicity photos, performance and rehearsal photos, professional and family gatherings, and candid snapshots; assorted professional files, reviews, publicity, and programs; and a series dedicated to Musical Elements, Asia's contemporary chamber ensemble, which he co-directs with composer Robert Beaser.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged into 7 series as follows: Series I. Music (arranged in sub-series by composition type); Series II. Reviews and Publicity (minimally processed); Series III. Programs (minimally processed); Series IV. Musical Elements (this series consists of materials relating to Asia's chamber ensemble of that name, and is arranged into sub-series similar to those of the broader collection, with the exception of Photographs, which have been included in Series VI); Series V. Correspondence (arranged alphabetically by name or organization); Series VI. Photographs; Series VII. Files (arranged by file category, minimally processed).
