CALL NUMBER: WA Photos 524

CREATOR: Palmquist, Peter E.

TITLE: Peter E. Palmquist photographs

DATES: circa 1950-2003

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 44.3 linear feet (109 boxes) + 7 broadsides.

LANGUAGE: English

SUMMARY: Photographic material that chiefly documents Peter Palmquist's professional life as a photographer. This includes images from his service in the United States Army, mainly with the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe in Paris, France, 1955-1959, as well as his career as a staff photographer for Humboldt State University, Arcata, California, 1961-1989. The latter photographs include significant documentation of the Theater Arts Department and its productions. Other photographs and negatives document his freelance, fine art, and wedding photography. A large group of copy photographs in the collection document Palmquist's research interests on a range of subjects with a focus on photography, especially its role in the history of the American West, particularly in California.

Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

As a rule, descriptive information found in the Collection Contents section is drawn in large part from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Much of the collection remains in Palmquist's original housing and represent his original order for the material.

Former call number: Uncat Mss 509

Peter E. Palmquist (1936-2003)

A photographer, collector, and historian of photography, Peter Eric Palmquist was born in Oakland, California on September 23, 1936. In 1944, he moved with his family to Ferndale, California, and he spent most of his life in Humboldt County. During adolescence, Palmquist trained himself in photography. He served in the United States Army as a photographer from 1955 to 1959, mainly with the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe in Paris, France. Palmquist worked briefly as a photographer for the state government of California from 1959 to 1961. From 1961 until his retirement in 1989, Palmquist worked as a staff photographer for Humboldt State University, Arcata, California, where he also graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art in 1965.

From 1971 until his death, Palmquist collected textual materials and hundreds of thousands of photographic items documenting the practice and occupation of photography from its beginning through the turn of the twenty-first century. He had particular interest in early California photographers, photographers of the American West, and women photographers.

A self-trained researcher and historian of photography, Palmquist organized more than one hundred exhibitions and wrote more than three hundred articles and a hundred monographs. He was a founding editor of The Daguerreian Annual, and a president of the National Stereoscopic Association.

Palmquist died January 13, 2003, in Oakland.

Scope and Contents

Photographic material that chiefly documents Peter Palmquist's professional life as a photographer. This includes images from his service in the United States Army, mainly with the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe in Paris, France, 1955-1959; his personal travels through Europe during his military service including Belgium, England, Gibraltar, Italy, Malta, Netherlands, and Switzerland; his career as a staff photographer for Humboldt State University, Arcata, California, 1961-1989 including significant documentation of the Theater Arts Department and its productions; images that document significant events in Humboldt County, California from 1961 to circa 1990 including the Christmas flood of 1964; and thousands of black and white and color negatives that document weddings in Humboldt County from 1960 to roughly 1990. Other photographs and negatives document his freelance and fine art photography. Large groups of copy photographs document his research interests on a range of subjects with a focus on photography, especially its role in the history of the American West, particularly in California.

Series III: General Photographs, 1960-2002*10.3 linear feet (26 boxes)*

General photographic files of Palmquist related to his career as a photographer.

Series II is organized into five subseries: Negatives and Photographic Prints in Envelopes, Negatives and Photographic Prints not in Envelopes, Photographic Prints by Subject, Black-and-white Transparencies, and Color Slides and Transparencies

Negatives and Photographic Prints in Envelopes
circa 10,000 negatives

Negatives and strips of contact prints, as well as some photographic prints, derived chiefly from black-and-white negatives with dimensions of 35 millimeters, as well as some 120 millimeters and 4 by 5 inches, created by Palmquist and housed in his original envelopes, 1960-2002. The envelopes include a brief descriptive title for the images and the date. This component also includes a group of negatives and prints found interspersed in the other portions of the collection.

Significant events documented in the images include the dedication of the Avenue of the Giants scenic highway in July 1960; the Century 21 Exposition in Seattle, Washington, in June 1962; Christmas Flood of 1964; and the dedication of the Lady Bird Johnson Grove in Redwood National Park on August 27, 1969. General topics include images of events at Humboldt State College (later Humboldt State University), fairs, logging, and sporting events, as well as landscape and cityscapes of sites throughout northwestern California. Images also include photographs of Palmquist's immediate and extended family, as well as friends.

Arranged chronologically followed by undated material.

Series V: Humboldt State University, 1962-1972*5.7 linear feet (16 boxes)*

Humboldt State Normal School was founded in 1913. In 1921 the name changed to Humboldt State Teachers College and then in 1935 to Humboldt State College. In 1972, it changed its name to California State University, Humboldt, and then to Humboldt State University in 1974.

Photographs of Humboldt State University, Arcata, California, which Palmquist created or collected as a staff photographer from 1961 until his retirement in 1989. This portion of the collection also includes non-campus images used to illustrate university publications. A large portion of this component includes photographic documentation of the Theater Arts Department.

Series IV is organized into five subseries: Theater Arts Department; General Negatives and Photographic Prints; General Photographic Prints; General Color Slides and Transparencies; and Oversize

Theater Arts Department

Photographs of productions and activities of the Theater Arts Department at Humboldt State College, March 1962-May 1972.

Organized under four headings: Negatives and Contact Prints, Negatives and Color Transparencies, Photographic Prints, and Publications

Negatives and Contact Prints

Negatives and strips of contact prints from black-and-white negatives with dimensions of 35 millimeters that document theatrical productions. The material is housed in negative pages numbered and annotated by Palmquist.

	Slides in this component were originally on a light stand, and on top of a desk and in its drawers, as well as in slide carousels in Palmquist's workspace at the time of his death. The slides chiefly consist of copy photographs of material in his collection.
	Library staff initially housed the slides from the light stand and desk into boxes, which staff then rehoused in three-ring binders with dividers that designate those boxes.
	Organized by location in Palmquist's workspace.
