Processing Information

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and in some instances minimal organization, at the time of acquisition. Further description was carried out in 2012. The collection is comprised of material formerly classed as: Za Coxe, Uncat Za Ms Coxe, and Uncat ZA MS 538. Various acquisitions associated with the collection have not been merged and organized as a whole. Each acquisition is described separately in the contents list below, according to month and year of acquisition.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and compiled from individual catalog cards. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during basic processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

George Harmon Coxe (1901-1984)

George Harmon Coxe, American novelist, was born in 1901 in Olean, New York. He attended Purdue University from 1919-1920 and Cornell University from 1920-1921. Coxe worked as a reporter in San Diego and New York and as an advertising salesman in Massachusetts. Coxe married Elizabeth Fowler in 1929 and they had one daughter and one son.

During the course of his career as a crime and detective novelist, Coxe authored over 60 books and numerous short stories published in magazines such as Black Mask, Street & Smith's Detective Story Magazine, and Cosmopolitan. Two films were made from Coxe's stories: Women Are Trouble was released in 1936 and Here's Flash Casey in 1938. Coxe was awarded the Mystery Writers of America Grand Master award in 1964. He died January 30, 1984 in Hilton Head Island, South Carolina.

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of material created and accumulated by George Harmon Coxe in the course of his career as a crime novelist and short story writer. Material includes writings, correspondence, financial papers, subject files, photographs, printed material and scrapbooks by or relating to George Harmon Coxe, spanning the years 1897 to 1980, with the bulk of the material spanning 1922 to 1980.

Arrangement

Organized into two groupings: I. 1965-1979 Acquisitions II. October 1997 Acquisition.

Material within this collection has been organized by acquisition reflecting the fact that the collection has been acquired in increments over time.

Researchers should note that material within each acquisition overlaps with/or relates to material found in other acquisitions. For instance, correspondence and writings can be found in both groupings. In order to locate all relevant material within this collection, researchers will need to consult each acquisition described in the Collection Contents section.

Collection Contents

Series I: 1965-1979 Acquisitions, 1937-1972

13.13 linear feet (32 boxes)

Writings consist of typescript, and typescript carbon drafts, often with the author's corrections or editorial markup, and proofs. Correspondence consists of incoming letters from Coxe's publishers, family, and friends; some third-party letters are enclosed. The Brandt & Brandt files contain business correspondence between Coxe's publisher and third parties, consisting mostly of original incoming letters and carbons of outgoing letters, and relating to Coxe's works.

Formerly classed as Za Coxe and Uncat Za Ms Coxe.

Organized into three series: Writings, Correspondence, and Brandt & Brandt Files. Writings are arranged alphabetically by title. Correspondence is arranged alphabetically by name. Brandt & Brandt files are arranged chronologically.
