Microfilm available for portions of the collection.

Associated Materials

William Lyon Phelps Papers (MS 578). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

William Lyon Phelps (1865-1943)

William Lyon Phelps was born in New Haven, Connecticut, on January 2, 1865. He received a B.A. degree from Yale in 1887, an A.M. degree from Harvard in 1891, and a Ph.D. from Yale in 1891. Phelps taught English at Yale from 1892 until 1933 and was a popularizer of literature through his public lectures, radio addresses, and syndicated newspaper columns. He died in New Haven on August 21, 1943.

Scope and Contents

The William Lyon Phelps papers at the Beinecke Library contain correspondence, writings, and other materials documenting the life and work of American author, critic, and long-time Yale professor William Lyon Phelps. The bulk of the collection consists of correspondence to Phelps from contemporaries from the first half of the twentieth century, including well-known authors and literary critics. Other materials include a large group of outgoing letters from Phelps to Ralph T. Catterall and notes, drafts, and cancelled pages of Phelps's Autobiography With Letters (1939).

Phelps taught at Yale University from 1892 until 1933 and his research files, student notebooks, personal and family papers can be found in the William Lyon Phelps Papers (MS 578) held in Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.
