CALL NUMBER: YCAL MSS 752

CREATOR: Lloyd, Lewis L.

TITLE: Lewis Lloyd papers

DATES: 1880–2013

BULK DATES: 1961–1994

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 50.32 linear feet (61 boxes) + 29 broadsides, 4 broadsides oversize, 11 art

LANGUAGE: English

SUMMARY: The papers of Lewis Lloyd include correspondence, writings, business records, photographs, artwork, audio tapes, video tapes, printed material, production programs, posters, books and ephemera. The papers document his work between 1962 and 1989 in a number of professional positions: as owner of the off-Broadway Pocket Theater; manager of the Merce Cunningham Dance Company; general manager for the Brooklyn Academy of Music; program director for the New York State Council for the Arts; and as a consultant to television and radio stations, dance companies and art museums in the Northeast. Lloyd also was an avid collector of theatre and dance memorabilia. Along with his personal papers are books, production programs, posters, photographs and other materials documenting the history and productions of Alvin Ailey, Ballets Russes, the American Ballet Company, New York City Ballet, Twyla Tharp, as well as dancers and choreographers.

Processing Information

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and in some instances minimal organization. Various acquisitions associated with the collection have not been merged and organized as a whole. Each acquisition is described separately in the contents list below, identified by a unique call number and titled according to month and year of acquisition.

Material within this collection has been organized by acquisition reflecting the fact that the collection has been acquired in increments over time. Researchers should note that material within each acquisition overlaps with and/or relates to material found in other acquisitions. In order to locate all relevant material within this collection, researchers will need to consult each acquisition described in the Collection Contents section.

Researchers should also note that similar material can be arranged differently in each acquisition, depending on how the material was organized when it was received by the library.

As a rule, descriptive information found in the Collection Contents section is drawn in large part from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

The abbreviations ABC (American Ballet Company), AFTRA (American Federation of Television and Radio Artists), BAM (Brooklyn Academy of Music), and NYSCA (New York State Council on the Arts) are used within the Collection Contents list.

Inventory numbers (# "number") assigned by Lewis Lloyd have been retained in the descriptions.

Before coming to the Beinecke Library, the papers were on deposit at the Harvard Theatre Collection.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Biographical / Historical

Lewis Lloyd was born in 1938, graduated with a B.A. from Yale University in 1960, and received a Master's degree in public administration from The John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University in 1974. In addition to owning and directing the Pocket Theater in New York from 1962 to 1974, he was a manager for the Merce Cunningham Dance Company, general manager for the Brooklyn Academy of Music from 1968 to 1972, and was the program director for the Performing Arts, New York State Council for the Arts from 1972 to 1974. He also was manager of finance and administration for WGBH from 1975 to 1980, and was an independent consultant from 1980 to 1985, working with The Entertainment Channel in New York; BBI Productions, Channel 5 in Boston; the architectural firm of Skidmore Owings & Merrill; and the Boston Redevelopment Authority. From 1989 to 1992 he was vice president of finance and administration at New England Conservatory in Boston. Lloyd also served on the boards of the Boston Ballet, the Twyla Tharp Dance Company, and Boston's Institute for Contemporary Art.
