Preferred Citation

World Student Christian Federation Records - Addendum (RG 46C), Special Collections, Yale Divinity School Library.

Related Materials

The World Student Christian Federation records (RG 46) contain the records of the WSCF from its founding until approximately 1925, and consist mainly of materials from John R. Mott's personal collection. The remaining records of the WSCF, roughly 1925-present, are in RG 46F. These materials were held at the WSCF offices in Geneva until 2017.

Records from the WSCF Board of Trustees can be found in RG 46B.

Records from other regional WSCF offices can be found in RG 46A (North America), RG 46D (Africa) and RG 46E (Europe).

Biographical / Historical

The World's Student Christian Federation was created in 1895 to fulfill its founders' vision of an international student Christian movement which could encourage and coordinate the work of existing national student Christian movements, as well as stimulate the formation of unified student movements in countries where they did not exist.
