Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

The records were transferred from the Drama Library, 2009.

Conditions Governing Access

Access to the records is partially restricted. See Collection Contents for details.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright for materials authored or otherwise produced as official business of Yale University is retained by Yale University. Copyright status for other collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Preferred Citation

Drama Library, Yale University, Records (RU 1086). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Processing Information

Yale University records are arranged and described at the accession level by the creating office. The University Archives creates collection level descriptive records, but typically does no further arrangement and description at the accession level.

Biographical / Historical

The Drama Library began in 1925 when the Department of Drama (later School of Drama) was founded by George Pierce Baker. During most of its history it was located in the University Theatre building at 222 York Street. In August of 2008 it joined the collections housed in the Haas Family Arts Library.

Scope and Contents

The materials consist of correspondence, gift records, accession records, and annual reports.

General note

Forms part of Yale Record Group 32-D (YRG32-D), Records of Yale school and departmental libraries and collections.

Arrangement

The records are arranged by accession.

Collection Contents

Accession 2010-A-001: Drama Library records, 1926-2009

2 linear feet

The materials consist of accession records, annual reports, and correspondence.
