Arrangement

Arranged by record type.

Collection Contents

Original accession, 1969–1985

2.17 linear feet (2 boxes)

This accession comprises Anne Nelson-Black's research files on political, social, and economic conditions in the Caribbean Central and South America in the 1970s and 1980s. Political conditions in Puerto Rico are particularly well-documented. The Puerto Rico files contain research materials regarding United States land use of the islands of Culebra and Vieques, as well as Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and United States Navy activities on the Puerto Rican islands.

This accession received a basic level of processing, including physical foldering and minimal organization, in 2021. Loose materials were foldered and arranged into groupings based on country or topic.

The materials are arranged alphabetically.
