Scope and Contents

The Southard Hay Autograph Collection contains correspondence, legal documents, financial papers, and other items (1750-1885) signed by several United States presidents, cabinet officers, Supreme Court justices, governors of various states, and many others, as well as signatures cut from a number of documents. Among the notables represented are Charles F. Adams, James Buchanan, John C. Calhoun, Salmon P. Chase, Millard Fillmore, Alexander Hamilton, John Hancock, Andrew Johnson, Mary Todd Lincoln, John Marshall, William H. Seward, and Martin Van Buren. Persons represented by five or more items include Joseph Bloomfield, Lewis Cass, William H. Crawford, J. L. Edwards, Thomas Fitzsimons, Samuel D. Ingham, Robert Morris, Nathaniel Pendleton, Richard Rush, Robert Troup, and Oliver Wolcott.

The bulk of the papers relates to the history of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, and Virginia, and of these, a large proportion concerns the inter-related legal and financial affairs of Joseph Higbee of Trenton, Nathaniel Pendleton of New York, Thomas Woodruff and John Beatty, presidents of the Trenton Banking Company, and Robert Morris of Philadelphia. In order to preserve the historical narrative created by these materials, the collection has been arranged in chronological order. An alphabetical index has been appended to this register to facilitate the finding of individual items.

The collection also contains a small amount of printed material. Southard Hay donated this collection to Yale University in 1937.
