Biographical / Historical

Mark Fernand Severin (1906-1987) was a Belgian artist and graphic designer, active mostly in England. He designed hundreds of bookplates, including many erotic ex-libris designs, as well as postage stamps, book illustrations, advertising posters, and other graphic works.

Scope and Contents

The collection contains the following materials: bookplates designed by Mark Severin (1906-1987) for a variety of patrons; bookplates designed for Severin by other artists; other graphic works by Severin, including several Christmas and New Year's greeting cards; and correspondence and ephemera by Severin or otherwise related to the collection, though unattached to specific bookplates.

Arrangement

Organized into four series: I. Bookplates by Severin. II. Bookplates by Other Artists for Severin. III. Other Works by Severin. IV. Correspondence and Ephemera.

Collection Contents

Series I: Bookplates by M. Severin

This series contains primarily bookplates for individuals, although a few institutional bookplates are also present. Multiple designs for the same patron are filed together, and most files are accompanied by typed notes, which identify artist's proofs and varying states, provide additional context from Severin's letters, etc.

Arranged alphabetically by patron name. Any correspondence or ephemeral materials relating to a specific bookplate are filed together with the bookplate.
