Immediate Source of Acquisition

Gift of George Kubler, 1987, 1995-1996. Gift of Elizabeth Kubler, 1997-2002. Transfer from the Art and Architecture Library, 1998, 2005. Transfer from Research Services and Collections, 1999. Transfer from History of Art Department, 2008, 2011. Gift of Barbara Anderson, 2020.

Conditions Governing Access

Accession 1997-M-022, boxes 2, 7, 10, 32, 32A, 36-38, 41-42, 46, and 49-51, along with Accession 2020-M-0028, are open for research. The rest of the material is unprocessed and may contain sensitive information or be in a physical state that would prohibit use. Researchers wishing to request access should email beinecke.library@yale.edu. The request should outline the scope and purpose of the research project, why the researcher believes the material is relevant to their project, and contact information. If possible the request should also include a list of specific material of interest including collection, box, and folder numbers (or folder descriptions if folders are not numbered). The review may take several weeks.

Preferred Citation

George Alexander Kubler Papers (MS 843). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Biographical / Historical

George A. Kubler was a noted professor of art history at Yale University from 1938 until his retirement. He was chief of the UNESCO Mission to Cuzco, Peru in 1951; and a Guggenheim fellow in Mexico, 1943-1944, and in Spain, 1952-1953. Kubler was a member of numerous learned societies and author of books and articles. He died on October 3, 1996.

Scope and Contents

These papers consist of plans, reports, and memoranda from George Alexander Kubler's service as chief of the UNESCO mission to Cuzco, Peru, following the earthquake in that city on May 20, 1951. The largest portion of the papers is made up of reports of the Junta de Reconstrucción y Fomento Industrial del Cuzco, 1952-1956, with supporting charts and tables of costs. There are also a pilot plan issued in 1951 by the Oficina Nacional de Planeamiento y Urbanismo and recommendations for the preservation of cultural monuments (1955). Writings by Kubler include a speech on the work of the Junta (1955), and miscellaneous notes, in particular a group entitled "Pilot Plan, 1955". Almost all of the papers, other than Kubler's notes, are in Spanish.
