Biographical / Historical

Leon Weliczker Wells was born in Lvov, Poland, on March 10, 1925. Wells was a prisoner in the Janowska concentration camp outside Lvov during World War II. He escaped from the camp in an uprising in 1943 and was hidden in the basement of the Kalwinski family on the outskirts of Lvov.

Wells kept a written record of his experiences as a member of the "Death Brigade," and these memoirs were published in Poland after the war and reissued in the United States as The Janowska Road. In 1946 Wells left Poland for the American Zone in Germany, and while in Munich he helped organize the Jewish Historical Commission there. This group gathered documents on the Holocaust which became part of the original collection of the Yad Vashem archive in Israel. Wells gave testimony at both the Nuremberg trials and the Eichmann trial.

In 1949 Wells received his Ph.D in mechanical engineering from the Technical Institute of the University of Munich. He came to the United States in 1949 and did post-graduate work in physics at Lehigh University. He has worked in the field of applied optics and mechanisms and holds patents on motion picture projecting systems.

Wells published Who Speaks for the Vanquished? in 1987. In this work Wells investigated the "non-response" of American Jewish leaders of the plight of Jews in Nazi Europe. He contended that Zionist organizations in America failed to respond in a significant way to save the Jews of Europe because they were focusing their time, influence, and money on preparations for a Jewish state in Palestine.

Wells lives in Fort Lee, New Jersey. He and his wife have three children.

Scope and Contents

The Leon Weliczker Wells Papers consist of correspondence, manuscripts, and research material relating to Wells's book, Who Speaks for the Vanquished?. The papers also include a small amount of correspondence concerning arrangements for Wells to appear before courts in West Germany to testify in war crimes trials in the 1960s and 1970s.

The bulk of the material, which Wells gave to the Yale University Library in 1987, is composed of copies of documents Wells assembled in researching Who Speaks for the Vanquished?. The Wells Papers include copies of relevant minutes from boards and committees of Hadassah and the World Jewish Congress as well as letters written by prominent American Jewish leaders in response to a questionnaire mailed to them by Wells. Additions of correspondence, writings, printed ephemera, and a CD relating to the Holocaust complete the collection.

Wells received permission from Hadassah to copy the materials now in folders 13-20 of the original accession. While Hadassah has allowed the Manuscript and Archives Department to make these files available to researchers, permission to copy or quote from the Hadassah materials rests with Hadassah. Researchers may not photocopy materials in folders 13-20, and any researcher seeking to quote from these files or use this material in any way must secure permission from Hadassah.
