Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

The Yale Bookplate Collection was formerly housed in Sterling Memorial Library. The collection was incorporated into the Arts of the Book Collection in 1984 and then moved to the Seeley G. Mudd Library in 1990. In 2011 it was transferred to the Robert B. Haas Family Arts Library.

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright has not been transferred to Yale University.

Preferred Citation

Collection of 18th- and 19th-century British Bookplates, Robert B. Haas Family Arts Library, Yale University.

Scope and Contents

The collection comprises mostly eighteenth- and nineteenth-century British ex-libris. The majority of the bookplates were commissioned by individual patrons, although the collection includes a small number of institutional bookplates as well. The bookplates were originally housed in envelopes, which have been retained because they include a variety of annotations concerning the identification and condition of the bookplates contained therein.

Arrangement

Arranged alphabetically by patron. This alphabetical ordering is largely by surname, but the collection also contains a few bookplates for institutional patrons, which are filed alphabetically by name as well (e.g., Oxford College under the letter "O").

Collection Contents

Bookplates

Arranged alphabetically by patron. Any correspondence or ephemeral materials related to a specific bookplate are filed together with the bookplate.
