Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Transferred by the Larry Kramer Initiative Executive Coordinator, 2004-2005. Gift of the LGBT Co-Op, 2009. Transferred from the African Collection Curator, 2014. Transferred from the Librarian for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Studies and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, 2015. Gift of Philippa Celani, 2022.

Conditions Governing Access

Original audiovisual materials and computer media, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played. Reference copies may be requested if they do not already exist. Contact Access Services for further information.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright status for collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Preferred Citation

AIDS Collection (MS 1834). Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

Accruals

Additions to this collection may be added periodically.

Scope and Contents

The AIDS Collection consists of printed materials, including reports, newsletters, pamphlets, posters, and fliers, related to the prevention, treatment, and status of AIDS in various countries.

Arrangement

Arranged in two series and seven additions. The series are: I. Countries 1985-1999. II. International, 1990-1999.

Collection Contents

Series I: Countries, 1985-1999

The series is arranged alphabetically by country. Within country, materials are arranged alphabetically by name of organization that produced them. Within organization, materials are arranged alphabetically by title of the printed piece. Materials for which no organization can be determined are located at the end of each country under the heading "unaffiliated." Materials whose country of origin cannot be determined are found at the end of the series.

Original videotape in Box 8 may not be played. Readers may only play use copies. Use copies do not exist, therefore researchers must consult with the reference archivist about policies and procedures regarding the creation of duplicating master and use copies of the original recordings.

Series I: Countries

1973-2004

The series is arranged alphabetically by country. Within country, materials are arranged alphabetically by name of organization that produced them. Within organization, materials are arranged alphabetically by title of the printed piece. Materials for which no organization can be determined are located at the end of each country under the heading "unaffiliated." Materials whose country of origin cannot be determined are found at the end of the series. Whenever known, authors' names are included in bracket statements.
