CALL NUMBER: GEN MSS 838

CREATOR: Pforzheimer, Walter L. (Walter Lionel), 1914-2003 , collector

TITLE: Walter L. Pforzheimer collection of historical manuscripts

DATES: circa 1370-1960s

BULK DATES: 1500-1830

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 4.26 linear feet (11 boxes)

LANGUAGE: Chiefly in French; some materials in Latin, German, Italian, English, or other languages.

SUMMARY: The Walter L. Pforzheimer Collection of Historical Manuscripts contains approximately 500 manuscript documents, circa 1370s-1870s, consisting of letters, legal documents, and other manuscripts written or signed by European heads of state, government, diplomatic, military or church officials, or literary authors. Most materials are French, including documents signed by French royalty and nobility, 14th-18th centuries. Many French manuscripts date from the French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars, including printed Revolutionary government documents completed in manuscript. A small amount of similar documents from other European countries and the United States are present. Some documents contain evidence of previous ownership, such as annotations, collectors' bindings, or bookplates. Also present are materials relating to Pforzheimer's research and collecting, 1920s-circa 1960s, consisting of card files, biographical notes, engraved portraits, and vendor descriptions.

Preferred Citation

Walter L. Pforzheimer Collection of Historical Manuscripts. General Collection, Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University.

Processing Information

This collection consists of materials formerly classed as Uncat Mss 928; Uncat Mss 724; Uncat Ms Vault File Browne; Uncat Ms Vault File Dickens; Uncat Ms Vault File France, Sovereigns, Charles IX; Uncat Ms Vault File Saint Mars; Uncat Ms Vault File Wolfe; and Uncat Ms Vault File Yale University.

Materials formerly classed as Uncat Mss 928, Walter Pforzheimer Collection of French Historical Documents, were originally part of the Walter L. Pforzheimer Papers accessioned as Uncat Mss 991 in 2000. These mostly French historical manuscripts, with some German, English, and other languages, were removed from the Papers in 2003 and during preliminary processing of the Papers in 2007-2008. Separation of historical manuscripts from the Pforzheimer Papers was not comprehensive: many additional historical manuscripts remain in the Papers, and some Pforzheimer personal papers were moved to the Collection of French Historical Documents.

In 2007, the Collection of French Historical Documents received a preliminary level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization. Most folder titles were based on information provided by the donor, while some were provisionally assigned by Library staff. Folder titles were not verified against contents. In 2012 March, the collection title was changed to Walter L. Pforzheimer Collection of Historical Manuscripts and other historical manuscripts donated to the Library by Pforzheimer in 1995 and 1959-2003 were added. The collection was reclassified under one call number, materials were organized by acquisition, and boxes were renumbered in a single sequence. Most folder titles assigned during preliminary processing were updated to conform with Library of Congress name authorities. Folder titles were not verified against contents

This finding aid may be updated to account for further revisions in arrangement and description.

Walter L. Pforzheimer (1914-2003)

Walter L. Pforzheimer, lawyer, intelligence officer, and book collector. Pforzheimer was born in Port Chester, New York, in 1914, and graduated from Yale College (1935) and Yale Law School (1938). Pforzheimer began his intelligence career in the United States Army, 1942-1945, in the Office of Strategic Services and as an Army Air Force intelligence officer. He was one of the founders of the Central Intelligence Agency in 1946, and as a CIA legislative counsel and liaison to Congress assisted in drafting the 1947 National Security Act. In 1956, he founded the CIA's Historical Intelligence Collection, which he curated until his retirement in 1974. In retirement, he continued to work for the CIA and taught at the Defense Intelligence College. Pforzheimer died in Washington, D.C., in 2003.

Pforzheimer came from a family of book collectors: his father, also named Walter Pforzheimer (1883-1955), collected French armorial bindings and assembled a virtually complete collection of Molière; his uncle Carl H. Pforzheimer (1879-1957) collected Percy Bysshe Shelley and his circle. Pforzheimer inherited and augmented his father's collections, and assembled his own collection of American novelist Frank Richard Stockton. In addition to curating the CIA's Historical Intelligence Collection, Pforzheimer built a personal collection of books and manuscripts documenting the history of military intelligence. Elected to the Yale Library Associates board of trustees in 1936, Pforzheimer was a life-long trustee and donor to the Yale Libraries. He donated his book and manuscript collections of Molière, French armorial bindings, Frank Richard Stockton, and military intelligence to the Beinecke Library in 2001.

Also present are materials relating to Pforzheimer's research and collecting, 1920s-circa 1960s, consisting of card files, biographical notes, engraved portraits, and vendor descriptions.

Research strengths include European government, politics, and wars, 14th-19th centuries, especially France, the French Revolution, and Napoleonic Wars; manuscript collecting; and the formation of Pforzheimer's book and manuscript collections.

Arrangement

Organized into three groupings: November 2000 Acquisition, July 2005 Acquisitions, and Other Acquisitions.

Collection Contents

November 2000 Acquisition, circa 1370-1960s

4.05 linear feet (10 boxes)

Names indicate authors or signers of manuscripts, with a few exceptions indicated in folder notes. Name forms and dates of birth and death conform to Library of Congress authorities, except where indicated by brackets. Dates of manuscripts are indicated only if birth and death dates are lacking or unverified. Additional manuscripts pertaining to some names may be found among unidentified materials.

In addition to contents of the Research Material subseries, some typed transcripts, English translations, and other research materials are filed with individual manuscripts. Card files are unarranged, and include cards pertaining to Pforzheimer's collections of military intelligence and Molière.

Organized into three groups: Historical Manuscripts, arranged alphabetically by name; Historical Manuscripts, Unidentified, arranged alphabetically by nationality, and chronologically within nationality; and Research Material.
