CALL NUMBER: JWJ MSS 89

CREATOR: James Weldon Johnson Memorial Collection of Negro Arts and Letters (Yale University)

TITLE: Clippings file of the James Weldon Johnson Memorial Collection

DATES: circa 1920-1993

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 122.36 linear feet (295 boxes)

LANGUAGE: English

SUMMARY: The Clippings File of the James Weldon Johnson Memorial Collection includes pamphlets and clippings documenting the African American experience in the twentieth century. The collection especially highlights the achievements of individual African Americans, the work of community and education organizations, and areas such as film, theater, music, sports, politics, and civil rights. The clippings were collected primarily by Langston Hughes, James Weldon and Grace Nail Johnson, Ollie Jewel Simms Okala (a friend and close associate of the Johnsons), and Carl Van Vechten, with some additional materials added by others. Clippings in the collection are drawn from general news sources as well as national and regional newspapers and magazines with an African American focus. The majority of clippings are from New York, Ohio, Arkansas, Illinois, and Pennsylvania newspapers. The collection also includes pamphlets and ephemera.
